

Content-Based Chapter Books Fiction (Science: Science Sleuths): The Midnight Menace (National Geographic Reach)

The Sleuths set out to investigate who, or what, is tearing up a neighborhood at night. They round up suspects and learn that some animals are most active at night have adapted to the city environment by stealing food from garbage cans. Your students will find out how much fun science is when they go on adventures with the Science Sleuths. The Sleuths help write science articles by following leads and investigating them. They use problem-solving and research skills to solve science-based mysteries. (Genre: Mystery)
